

HALF-DAY TOUR IN PARIS OCTOBER THE 3RD

Based on 10 persons

OURS CLIENTS

HALF-DAY TOUR 2015

10 persons
October the 3rd

Half-Day tour
French "Art de vivre et Savoir-Faire"

- Cultural and artistic heritage

PARIS

Half-day tour in Paris

Palais Royal

or

Saint-Germain-des-Prés

or

Le Marais

or

Montmartre

Palais-Royal, the amazing covered passages

Explore these unique covered passages, innovative in their architecture and unique in their atmosphere! Plug into the history of these Passages built between the late 18th century and the mid-19th century, most of which were classified Historic Monuments. Discover their specific architecture with their amazing glazed roof, and other must-see places nearby: the gardens of The Palais-Royal with their chic and creative shopping arcades, the place where the concept of boutiques was born, beautiful fountains, the surprising Buren columns, unusual buildings, the former Stock exchange...

Experience this nice private guided tour between the chic rue Saint-Honoré area and more popular neighbourhood near the "Grands boulevards". This a very pleasant stroll brightened up with stops in carefully selected boutiques, featuring a genuine French know-how, or Parisian style: ancient books, autographs, unusual cardboard, beautiful show-room of silk flowers, real sculptural floral arrangements, gourmet shops with exquisite products ... A living heritage around the French lifestyle that the shopkeepers or your expert guide are delighted to present to you. Discover Paris between tradition and modernity! Get the Parisian touch!

Saint-Germain-des-Prés, a unique gourmet tour

Since ever, Saint-Germain-des-Prés has been a place of a particular charm that has always inspired artists. The place becomes a meeting point of numerous intellectuals and artists who enjoy discussing at the terrace of the Saint-Germain mythical cafés.

You learn about the history, started from the 6th century, exploring charming places, hidden courtyards, mansions, and discover amazing architecture and unusual buildings...While visiting boutiques focused on gastronomy.

Saint-Germain-des-Prés is the birthplace of famous chocolatiers and pâtissiers, and a real treasure for all gastronomy passionate looking for gourmet food.

This promenade is a delightful mix between food creation of famous "Chefs" and French regional refined specialities.

Experience this exclusive guided tour by tasting many food products, by visiting various gourmet places and meeting passionate shop-owners, talking with them about gastronomy: chocolate, macaroon, "baby'trop", "petites billes de chocolat épicées", "caramels au beurre salé", local products that you can only find there: surprising flavoured oils, appetizing "sel à la truffe", "tapenades", fig Chutney, amazing "pâtes à tartiner" like chèvre-caramel-sarrazin" etc...

The manufacture of chocolate, the meaning of the famous title "Meilleur Ouvrier de France", some techniques of creation, will no longer be a secret for you while talking with these craftsmen or shopkeepers!

Get ready to have your eyes and palates delighted with many subtle flavours and amazing mixture!

The tastings, per peson : one chocolate "grand cru", one macaroon or mini-tarte tropézienne, one "caramel beurre salé", spiced "petites billes de chocolat", French regional specialities, subtle olive oils.

Le Marais and its exceptional places

Discovering nice places while learning the history of the area, with its mansions, charming courtyards, unusual buildings, old signs of Paris... A real stroll between tradition and modernity, so great! This is the perfect tour as various places are visited, from the oldest Parisian "Maison de thés", or a huge 17C mansion, to the ultra-contemporary fashion concept-store, or unique fun concepts, delighting everybody!

Leather belts, with buckles and straps sold separately, innovative daily use products by French inventors, hand-made pieces, Murano crystal custom-jewelry, 20 flavors of the French pastries "l'éclair", incredible chocolate sculpture, quirky crafts and unexpected objects, cutting-edge fashion... Paris is bubbling with creativity!

Experience this unique private tour full of emotion, discovery and encounters!

Montmartre on and off the beaten path

Montmartre was the hub of the Parisian artistic scene in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, with many well known artists living and working in the area and enjoying the very lively evening entertainment. The area has retained the atmosphere of a village with cobblestone streets and the last remaining windmills of Paris.

You discover famous landscapes of Montmartre (such as vineyards) as well as unusual buildings and charming hidden places...

You learn about the history and anecdotes of the area while visiting boutiques or places that present something unique, a concept, hand-made pieces or exceptional (food) products. Examples: huge gallery of contemporary art, a real "artist" workshop (upon availability), boutiques of fashion young designer, and of course some nice gourmet shops...

The shopkeepers or the artists are delighted to talk with you about their know-how and specificities.

Experience the real soul of Montmartre!

The atmosphere of the tour is relaxed and friendly, with absolutely no obligation to purchase anything!

PROPOSITION TARIFAIRE

(basis on 10 persons, unless specified the price do not include tips, portorage, entrances, insurance)

OUR OFFER
Half -Day Tour	+ 4 hours visit of one of Paris Famous place (Palais Royal or St Germain des prés or Le Marais or Montmartre) + English guide Half-Day + Several tastings
Price in Euros VAT included	70€ per person

CONTACT PERSON

Laure VALENTIN
+ 33 (0)6 24 56 17 25

laure.valentin@proevasion.com

Pro Evasion™

46-48 RUE RENE CLAIR

75018 PARIS - FRANCE